Order of Christian Initiation (Adults)

Do you want to grow closer to Jesus? Is God calling you? We are all called onto a journey to a person, the person of Jesus Christ. How do we respond to Jesus' call to conversion, to discipleship and Communion? Join us this Fall as our OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) team leads you on this journey.

If you wish to learn more about the Catholic Faith, receive the Sacraments for the first time or possibly become Catholic, OCIA is for you. We will offer our annual inquiry nights where you can get a taste of what we have to offer at the St. John's Center at 7:00 PM on August 25th. Classes begin Monday, September 8th. For more information, contact Ron at quinlanr1@gmail.com or call the church office.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

As we all probably know, marriage is not easy and many enter marriage without proper discernment - especially if they are not even Christian. Every Christian even needs assistance simply being a good Christian. Jesus did not come to save individuals, but His family. Israel & the Israelites prefigured the Church, the family of God and they wandered the desert for (40) years in their spiritual journey to the land promised by God to Abraham.

By virtue of our baptisms, we have been given the hope of the eternal Promised Land in Heaven & the first vocation of every Christian is to attain Eternal Life. When two people enter the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony, they each add the vocation of helping their spouse also get to Heaven, while also loving them while on earth.

We also know that marriage is difficult and divorce rates are higher than they should be. When a couple become engaged in the Church, they need a mentoring couple as they begin their sacramental preparation. Our parish is looking for couples who would serve as good mentors. If you are interested in assisting in this ministry, please contact Fr. John or Rosie Plank in the OLSS parish office. Thank you!

Have a blessed week! +

Fr. John

Next weekend's readings: 22nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

In next weekend's readings Jesus cautions against seating oneself in places of honor. This could be geographical seating (as a table) or even figurative (as in life). Humility is an important virtue that is often overlooked in our current culture. Many suffer from the deception of an attitude of entitlement and envy. As God is the Host of the banquet of life with an eternal Banquet celebration, we do well to discern with humility His Will for us and where He would like us to be "seated" and what purpose He has for us. Striving to discern His Will minimizes the frustrations of trying to be, become, and do something not intended for us as He knows for what we were created and what gifts we have to accomplish what He hopes we will.

Visit our church website at: www.ccloris.com and click "New to Our Church" or pick up a form in church office.

STEWARDSHIP

Many say "time is money" and think their time is more valuable than other people's time. However, the time we spend is only as good as the love put into our activities or when we seek to accomplish God's Will. If our time is spent on materialistic goals that are not in line with God's Will, then we did not make good use of our time. In turn, our labor is only good if done with the loving desire to serve God and others. Seeking only to benefit ourselves is selfish; seeking to benefit others pleases God &, indeed, our time was valuable.

Catholic in Recovery

Overcoming addiction, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments can be really tough, and it often helps to have support from professionals and loved ones. We're excited to share that OLSS has a fantastic ministry called Catholic in Recovery (CIR), where you can find additional guidance and support. CIR meet every Friday at 6pm in the St. John Center on Sea Mountain Highway in North Myrtle Beach. They'd love for you to join them!
