July 15 is the Memorial Feast of St. Bonaventure. Known as "the Seraphic Doctor," John was born in Italy in 1221. He received the name of Bonaventure as a result of an exclamation of St. Francis of Assisi, who, responding to the child's mother, prayed for John's recovery from a dangerous illness, and, foreseeing John's future greatness, cried out,

"O Buona ventura" (O good fortune!).

Bonaventure entered the Franciscan Order at the age of 22. When he was 35, he was chosen General of his Order & restored the tranquility where internal dissensions had disrupted the peace. He composed The Life of St. Francis & achieved much for the sake of the Franciscan Order during his time.
