CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Strengthening Religious Freedom by Prayer, Education and Action

The Eucharistic Processions make daily progress from the four corners of our nation toward the July 17-21 Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. Catholics across America are online to follow their progress and join in the excitement and prayers from their home parishes.

The Congress in Indianapolis is not just a gathering, but a platform for spiritual growth. It is set to welcome 50,000 attendees for five days of profound learning, enriching fellowship, heartfelt prayer, and spiritual revival.

The public display of our Catholic faith through the practice of Eucharistic reverence is more than just a procession. It is a powerful statement that echoes the heart of the religious freedom our nation's founders enshrined in the First Amendment.

And so it comes to each American, of any faith or none, to protect the basis for all our liberties - the belief that our inalienable rights come from our Creator.

In our parishes, we can come together to learn the facts of religious freedom, pray for God to protect that right, and act publicly to maintain the exercise of our faith. Public rosaries are practical, powerful demonstrations of our Catholic faith.
