Dear Padre,

I have a friend who has been coming to church with me, and he often has questions I can't answer. The big one last week was, "Why don't Catholics have more Bible preaching instead of all this ceremony?" I try to explain, but I don't think I have the right words. Help!

Your friend's question is very common because our Catholic ceremony can be confusing to those of other faiths.

The Catholic Mass comes from two prayer traditions. First, there is the tradition of the Jewish synagogue service where people gather to read and study the word of God. Second, there is the tradition of the early Christians who met in their homes to celebrate the breaking of the bread.

The earliest Christians, Jewish converts, maintained their Sabbath tradition of reading and studying the word of God. They added to that the gift of the Eucharist that Jesus gave them. Our Mass puts these two together in the Liturgy of the Word (readings, preaching, prayers) and the Liturgy of the Eucharist (offering, eucharistic prayer, holy Communion).

The homily may not be as long as it is in some other Christian traditions, but the preaching should be solid, based on Scripture, and in line with the teaching of the Church. We are a Church of word and sacrament. We listen to the word of God and we celebrate the breaking of the bread. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

It is difficult to distinguish, among the many voices and many words, that of the Lord, the only one that makes us free. Always keep a handy copy of the Gospel with you...and then, read a short passage every day, so that you become used to reading the word of God.

Hi, my name is Lorena Beltran, I recently graduate from the University of South Carolina, in Early Childhood Education, and I am excited to share that I am a first year FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) Missionary! I will be at Oklahoma State University this Fall, encountering students on campus. College is truly a battlefield: young adults will leave their faith sometime during their college years...and unlike past generations, they aren't coming back. It's on college campuses-where beliefs and values and dreams are formed-that most people walk away from the faith. FOCUS is reaching out to tens of thousands of students on more than 225 college campuses in the US, Mexico, and Europe with over 850 missionaries. Through authentic friendships we introduce college students to the person of Jesus Christ, transforming them for life-long mission. I became a missionary to share and live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ and I would love for you to be a part of this mission with me! As a missionary I am responsible for fundraising 100% of our mission with the help of individuals like you. I would love to personally tell you more about my mission and how you can be a part of this mission with me. If you are interested you can call/text me at 843.333.6757, or email me at Lorena.Beltran@focus.org, I'd love to share more about the work that I will be doing to help bring souls closer to Jesus. This is my support page which tells you more about where I server, my story, and the impact you can have <https://focus.org/missionaries/lorena-beltran/>

Thank you and God Bless!
