PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy Autumn Greetings!

As you probably know by now, Fr. Francis has returned to Africa to renew his immigration status for another (2) years. As such, I will celebrate Masses here for a large percentage of that time: celebrating Mass in English at 9:00am and then in Spanish at 11:00am and then head back to OLSS for their Mass in Spanish at 1:30pm.

I will also spend a few hours on Thursday getting more acquainted with the parish as a whole and those who do a wonderful job keeping things operating and growing here. I am still learning so much at OLSS!

While serving as pastor at a large parish such as OLSS is somewhat new to me, shepherding a smaller parish as we have is not. I served as pastor at St. Anne's in Florence during which two of the last years, I also served as the administrator at Infant Jesus in Marion. Fortunately, I have Fr. David Michael and Fr. Cosmus Wambua (and eventually again Fr. Francis Mfesao Bakongo) to assist me in all this.

I look forward to seeing and getting to know many of you over the next several weeks!

Have a blessed week! +

Fr. John

DIOS ESTÁ DEL LADO DE LOS POBRES

Dos de las lecturas de hoy ponen muy en claro que Dios está del lado de los pobres. Amós describe en detalle el abuso de los pobres y necesitados. El Salmo repite que Dios actúa en beneficio de los pobres y los humildes. Pero Lucas pone las cosas de cabeza, contando una historia de un mayordomo en conflicto, a punto de ser despedido, que demuestra astucia y es recompensado. Como la comunidad a la que Pablo escribe en Timoteo, estas lecturas son personales, dirigidas a los creyentes, miembros de las comunidades judías y cristianas que tienen dificultades con elecciones personales de cómo conducir sus vidas. Ofrecen un bosquejo de cómo Dios desea que vivamos en un mundo tan complicado y tan confundido como el nuestro.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La última mitad del siglo pasado, nuestro continente vio el derrame de muchísima sangre cristiana. No podemos olvidar la sangre de quienes dieron la vida por el Evangelio de la justicia: Michel Quiroga evangelizador colombiano; Agustina Rivas monjita peruana; Vicente Matute líder indígena hondureño; Marlene Kegler una universitaria de 23 años argentina. Estos son algunos ejemplos de tantos que murieron creyendo que la doctrina cristiana no se puede contener en templos y conventos. Dieron la vida por querer vivir su fe en situaciones de discriminación e injusticia. Derramando su sangre se convirtieron en ángeles de justicia que gritan a Dios uniendo sus voces a la de Abel. Todos estos mártires latinoamericanos murieron a manos de latinoamericanos. Dieron sus vidas, según la mártir chilena Joan Alsina, como granos de trigo. Y desde el cielo ella nos pide: "Esperamos tu solidaridad. ¿Entiendes ahora lo que significa el Cuerpo de Cristo? Si nosotros nos hundimos es algo de tu esperanza la que se hunde. Pero si de las cenizas asumimos la vida de nuevo, es algo que nace de nuevo en ustedes." -Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz. OFM

NEXT WEEKEND'S READINGS:

Next weekend's Gospel includes Jesus' Parable of Lazarus and the rich man, as He taught about the need to take care of the poor in our midst. One thing that many Christians seemingly fail to recognize is that Jesus taught that there is the possibility of hell and that people cannot change sides. How we live this life determines our destination. If we want to receive God's mercy and hospitality, we have to share it with others while we are alive and can.

STEWARDSHIP

If we were to die today, what would we want to be known for? What would our stewardship - either time, talent, or treasure - depict about us? What were the things we really cared about? How did we sacrifice for those "causes" or persons?

GOD IS ON THE SIDE OF THE POOR

Two of today's readings make it quite clear that God is on the side of the poor. Amos describes in detail the exploitation of the poor and needy. The psalm repeats that God acts to benefit the poor and lowly. But Luke turns things upside down, telling a tale of a conflicted steward, about to be fired, who demonstrates his cleverness and is rewarded. Like the community to whom Paul writes in Timothy, these readings are personal, directed to believers, members of the Jewish and Christian communities, who struggle to deal with personal choices about how to conduct their lives. They offer an outline for how God wishes us to live in a world as complicated and as confusing as our own.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although June is the month most associated with weddings in the United States, September has become more popular in recent years. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. At the wedding feast at Cana, the mother of Jesus was recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arose, she did what she could to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress! Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ's blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the "Nuptial Blessing," one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrisem are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate their anniversaries well, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine. -James Field
