8 Spiritual New Year's Resolutions

- Increase your Marian devotion. Pray a daily decade of the rosary with the intention of working your way to an entire rosary each day (only about 15-20 minutes per day).
- Schedule prayer into your day. It's as simple as setting aside 15-30 minutes a day for silence, scripture, spiritual reading, and intimate conversation with the Lord. Put it in your calendar and make it a priority. Jesus will show up – will you?
- Increase your encounters with the Sacraments. Go to confession monthly or bi-monthly. Add one extra daily Mass each week. Or perhaps simply make the sign of the cross every time you pass a Catholic church, greeting Jesus in the Eucharist.
- Join a group. Make a concrete resolution to join a Bible study, faith sharing group, or book study. How about a ministry group at your parish? Join a community that will help you to grow in your faith.
- Give. Ask the Lord what He's asking of you. If you are not already giving, it's okay to take baby steps and start with 3% or 5%. If you are already giving, make an increase by 1% or 2%.
- Change what you listen to. Instead of morning talk shows and Top 40 music, try some Audrey Assad or Matt Maher. Look into podcasts such as: Catholic Stuff You Should Know, Pints with Aquinas, The Word on Fire Show, Fr. Mike Schmitz, Among the Lilies, plus many, many, more!
- Pick a saint to walk with this year. Read about them, get to know them, and talk to them. Ask for their intercession and invite them to be a spiritual companion for 2019.
- Start fasting. Did you know all Catholics are expected to perform some act of penance every Friday? Try dropping the sugar from your coffee or skipping snacks on non-feast days. Fasting is a way for us to be conformed to Christ every day.
