CIELOS Y TIERRA NUEVOS

Lecturas del día: Isaías 40:1-5, 9-11; Salmo 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14; 2 Pedro 3:8-14; Marcos 1:1-8. En la segunda semana de Adviento, consideramos el futuro que Dios nos tiene reservado. Al adentrarnos en las Escrituras, vemos que el Adviento no es lo simple que parece. Las lecturas de la semana pasada urgían a estar vigilantes y disponernos a la venida de Cristo. Esto requiere mucha atención interior a la palabra de Dios. El mensaje de esta semana va en la misma dirección.

El profeta Isaías pinta un bello cuadro para los israelitas de la cautividad. La salvación llegará, y el Señor perdonará todos sus pecados. La imagen es radical. Isaías dice que las montañas se allanarán y los valles serán rellenados. Alienta a Sión a anunciar Buenas Nuevas al mundo entero. Un tema similar escuchamos en el evangelio. Juan Bautista es el heraldo del Mesías que viene. Juan llama a toda la creación a arrepentirse y a buscar el perdón de Dios. Juan es el heraldo que allana el camino a Jesús, el que revela los cielos y la tierra nuevos, como anuncia la Segunda Carta de Pedro.

¿Cómo preparar corazón y mente a la llegada de Cristo? Se necesita un corazón vulnerable y vigilante. Quizá nos encontremos cautivos. Al buscar el perdón de Dios, con un corazón contrito, nos abrimos a la admirable gracia. La misericordia de Dios es el manantial de toda salud. Vivamos nuestra salvación con un estilo de vida que anuncie la entrada triunfante de Cristo que viene.

ATENCIÓN: Si desea comunicarse con el Padre Cirilo Bailón por favor llame al teléfono de la oficina de la iglesia # 843-249-2356 extensión # 28.

PASTOR DE ISRAEL

Dios todopoderoso y eterno, tú eres la fuente de todo consuelo y el manantial de nuestra salvación. Tú has salvado a tu pueblo del yermo y lo has reunido como a corderos en tu regazo, para alimentarlo con cariño maternal. Empareja en nosotros todo lo que el pecado ha socavado; endereza los caminos tortuosos de nuestro corazón. Que nuestro corazón arrepentido se vuelva a ti, y que ansiemos la llegada de tu Hijo, para que lo celebremos con júbilo, y podamos decir: "¡Aquí está tu Dios!". Por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

The 12 Myths of Christmas (Part 1)

Myth: Public school students aren't allowed to sing or play Christmas carols. Fact: Students can sing and perform religious carols along with secular ones. The purpose is to teach about our society's cultural and religious heritage and allow students to perform a full range of music, poetry and drama.

Myth: Teachers and students are banned from saying "Merry Christmas." Fact: The Supreme Court stated that teachers and students do not shed their right of free speech at the schoolhouse gate. Saying a simple greeting does not violate the First Amendment Establishment Clause.

Myth: Public schools cannot display religious Christmas symbols. Fact: A public school is free to display a Nativity scene among other forms of religious and secular seasonal expression with the purpose of depicting the origins of the holiday.

Myth: Students cannot hand out invitations to a Christmas party held at their church. Fact: When students are allowed to pass out invitations to birthday parties and other events, the courts have ruled that First Amendment free speech rights are guaranteed to even young students. (adflegal.org, 12/11/15; rutherfordinstitute.org)

News Alert: The Little Sisters of the Poor are returning to court to defend themselves against lawsuits from Pennsylvania and California that seek to take away the nuns' recently received conscience exemption from the Health and Human Services (HHS) rule. In October, HHS had rolled back the Affordable Care Act's federal mandate that employers must provide abortion-inducing drugs and contraception in their health insurance plans.

Congratulations to Father Droze on the 32nd Anniversary of his ordination as a priest.
