UPDATE from our parishioner and Focus missionary LORENA BELTRAM:

Hello! I wanted to start off by thanking you all for your prayers and messages you sent me during my time in Costa Rica. I had a wonderful time with 19 other companions on this mission trip serving in a town called Bajos Negros, Costa Rica. Our neighbors there were so generous and eager to meet us, and learn more about our experience with Christ in our lives.

After this mission trip I was reminded and even more convicted of my call to be a missionary by one of our neighbors Alexis who said “You are the youth & future of Christianity faith, do not be afraid to share your light in a world that needs God.”

Going on this mission trip was a beautiful experience seeing how the students were transformed by their neighbors’ love for them. It was clear that our neighbors in Bajos Negros know the Lord, His love, and His mercy, because of how well they delighted and loved us, not knowing anything about us or expecting anything in return for their kindness. It’s a reminder to us all that we are called to imitate Christ and His love for the whole world, and remembering that it might look differently now that we are back in Oklahoma, but we always have the opportunity to answer the call to love our neighbors just as Jesus loves us all!
